Description

The Addiction & Mental Health SCN (AMH SCN) is pleased to announce the 2017 Addiction & Mental Health Publication Grant funding competition designed to:

- Encourage knowledge translation in Alberta
- Support publication in open-access journals
- Increase the impact of addiction and mental health research in Alberta.

The maximum amount of a single award is $2,500. The total amount of funds available in this competition is $7,000. Grants will be awarded to AMH SCN research community members to support publications of novel research in open- access peer-reviewed journals.

Submit completed application by the indicated deadline electronically to Katherine.Rittenbach@ahs.ca

Eligibility

The applicant must be a member of the AMH SCN network.

The applicant must have led significant pieces of the work/provided significant contributions as indicated by first authorship (or in some cases last).

Priority will be given to clinical staff (physician, nurse, and scientists) at Alberta Health Services (AHS) or its affiliations that do not have access to other funding for publication.

Faculty members in one of Alberta's academic institutions will be eligible for this funding if they meet the other eligibility requirements, however they must provide evidence that they have applied to their institution and were unable to access funds for publication.
