Reproductive Health Team Logic Model

Outcomes Public Health Initiative Activities Inputs Impacts Short-term Medium-term Long-term Maintain a Teacher portal aligned with Alberta Education (TSH) curriculum outcomes, promoted through marketing Increase in teachers' and parents' Health knowledge of sexual health and Provide teacher/educator workshops Healthy sexual behaviours teaching strategies among youth and those 18-Maintain a portal for parents of children birth to 18 years of Sexual Increase in teachers' and parents' Improved knowledge and attitudes age, promoted through marketing skills and comfort in teaching and among youth about healthy sexual Staff discussing sexual health behaviours and development Improved (11.8 FTE) Create and maintain birth control health information sheets for sexual health Feaching reproductive health settings outcomes HCF Increase in teachers' and parents' use of sexual health teaching and Strategic Improved prevention and Action Plan discussion strategies treatment of STIs Identify opportunities to integrate into schools, primary care among youth and those 18and other sexual and reproductive health settings Operational & Grant Maintain a website targeting adults aged 18-44, promoted Improved Funding Preconception Health (PCH) through marketing perinatal Increase in adults aged 18-44's knowledge of preconception health health Needs and modifiable health behaviours outcomes Increase in healthy Provide professional development opportunities for primary identified by Improved healthy behaviours during care providers pregnancies preconception, pregnancy and intertarget conception. audiences Increase in primary care providers unique dissemination of preconception Implement strategies to integrate primary care and other sexual and reproductive health settings projecthealth information specific populations, Improved and other Improved breastfeeding maternal stakeholders Increase in knowledge importance of duration and exclusivity Maintain and disseminate clinical practice tools and Pregnancy Weight Gain (HPWG) health HPWG by target women and health rates resources for primary care providers care providers Improved nutrition and physical outcomes IT Supports activity levels among pregnant women Increase in primary care providers Provide education for health care providers through an online capacity to address HPWG with their earning module Collaboration clients Improved parenting skills, and stress and self-efficacy Integration within the Improved team and Increase in expectant parents', child and with partners parents of children up to age six, and Healthy Parents, Healthy Children (HPHC) Maintain and disseminate provincial print and online vouth health care providers' knowledge of resources development pregnancy, birth, and early childhood development Improved physical and social-emotional Increase in consistent health Implement strategies to integrate within health, community, Improved healthy skills and environments for children promotion messages regarding and educational settings behaviours during pregnancy, birth, and parents. pregnancy, birth, and early childhood development across AB and as a parent. Implement strategies to integrate into other settings that reach TBD based strategies populations more vulnerable to poor health outcomes