

Ukrainian Health Workers Bulletin

Alberta Health Services

AHS welcomes all refugees and evacuees to Alberta. As you settle in our province, we want to support you to become a health worker so that your knowledge, skill, and ability can continue to help improve the lives of those around you.

There's a position for you

Alberta Health Services (AHS), Canada's first and largest health authority, has exciting opportunities for Ukrainian health workers. Whether you already live in Alberta, in Canada, or are interested in relocating to our province, we want to connect with you to gather information about your work experience and qualifications.

We welcome all healthcare-related positions, including Registered Nurses, Licensed Practical Nurses, and Health Care Aide Workers to apply. There are also opportunities for Addiction & Mental Health professionals and in Information Technology, Environmental Services (housekeeping), and Facilities Maintenance & Engineering. (Full-time, part-time, and temporary positions are available.)

Getting started

We want to support you in your journey to becoming a health worker in Alberta by answering your questions, helping with translation, and exploring alternative roles that allow you to work with us while you work towards licensure.

At AHS, we understand how vital people are to fulfilling our mission of providing a patient-focused, high quality healthcare system. When you are at your best, we are at our best. You'll have access to competitive wages and a range of benefits that support the health and well-being of you and your family. You will also have excellent pension and group savings options to plan for your future!
